Route changes beginning on Sunday, October 14, 2018

MONCTON – Codiac Transpo wishes to advise customers of route changes coming into effect on Sunday, October 14, 2018. For more information, passengers can call 857-2008 or visit codiactranspo.ca.

Summation of changes for October 14, 2018

52 Blue Line: The run leaving CF Champlain at 10 p.m. will not be wheelchair accessible.

60 Bessborough: Following results of a 3 month long pilot, the 60/67 combo after 6 p.m. Monday to Saturday will not remain on English to Edinburgh but will turn on Delong. Sunday service will revert back to 60 Bessborough all day with a 60/68 combo run at 6 p.m.

62 Hildegard: The first run from Monday to Saturday will start at 6:45 a.m. and not 6:40 a.m. Following a 3 month pilot, this bus will continue on the same route, extended past the entrance to Magnetic Hill where it turns around for its return trip along Mountain Road. Stops are located just before the entry of Magnetic Hill as well as at the turnaround and on both sides of Mountain Rd at Casino Drive.

67 Edinburg: Following results of a 3 month long pilot, the 60/67 combo after 6 p.m. Monday to Saturday will not remain on English to Edinburgh but will turn on Delong. The check point will now be at English and Delong, please take note of time adjustments. In addition, the service will be reverting back to the previous Sunday schedule with runs at 10:30 a.m., 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m.

68 Salisbury: During the last set of adjustments in July, extra runs were added on Sunday as a result of combining the 60/67 routes. Unfortunately these combo runs on Sunday were not successful. The 3 extra runs added in July on Sunday at 10:30 a.m., 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. will be removed.

93 Champlain: This bus will follow the same route on the weekend as it does during the week day via Dawson and Adélarde-Savoie before turning onto Dieppe Blvd. Please take note of weekend time adjustments.

Check Point Name Change: The 1110 Main check point is now referred to as the Avenir Centre.
